AKRON

Not Yet Prize Winner.

Scores From Buffalo Not High.

Rinks Doing a Land Office Business.

Clark Defeated Viers in a Close Game.

While the bowling tournaments in Akron have not by any means discontinued business this week, the teams which go to make up the alley leagues, are waiting and watching the results at Buffalo, to see what progress their friends make in the contest there. There are a great number of prizes to be striven for, and the belief here is that Akron may get hold of some of them.

GUN CLUBS MEETING.
The meeting of gun clubs of the State, which will be held here soon, for contests, and matches for championships of various kinds, is regarded by members of the Akron club, as one of the main events of the season. The last meeting was held in Akron, and a great deal of excellent sport resulted.

THE TEMPERATURE.
The South End bowlers believe that they have the series of games against the Kirkwoods won, and believe that all that is necessary is to bowl fair scores at the rest of the meetings, in order to have the victory for the series clinched. The Kirkwood bowlers admit that they have very few chances to win the series, unless both they and their opponents roll a far different game than they have heretofore. The next meeting of the schedule will be held Friday night.

PLENTY OF SKATING.
The business at the various skating rinks about the city continues good. The cold weather has lasted a great deal longer than was expected when first the mercury began to drop, and local lovers of out-door winter sports have had a chance to do more on the ice this winter than for several years before. Skating on the lake has been spoiled, more or less, by the fall of snow.

IN FAVOR OF WASHER.
The fact that "Buck" Washer has been signed by the Daytonians, is taken up by all the teams and team members, against whom young Washer played during the past season. He became well known to all the teams in Akron and vicinity, and his progress is watched with interest. Buck will be in fast company in Dayton.

MADE MORE FRIENDS.
The Akron sports who accompanied Simms to Detroit will return to Akron tonight. Although there were doubters of Art's ability in the crowd when they left here, the faith of all was bolstered up in great measure, after the fight had ended and they had seen the excellent work of the Akron man against the Chicago whirlwind. Simms has helped his reputation wonderfully by the last battle, and there are many witnesses of the go, not all of them from Akron, who believe that the decision should have gone Art's way.

BUSY TIME

For Prince Henry if He Keeps All Appointments.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The committee on arrangements for the reception of Prince Henry is studying figures submitted by railroad experts in the form of suggested itineraries and also considering the many applications received from various cities for the Prince's attendance. It is said that it will be possible to give the Prince's visits a wider range than was at first expected and it is now pretty well settled that he will go to Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Milwaukee and Boston.

To cure a cold with ONE dose. Ajax Cold Cure does it. Prevents Pneumonia, cures the Grip.

How She Economized.
Husband—Mary, dear, did you buy that book you were telling me about on "how to economize in the kitchen?"
Young Wife—Yes, dear, and it is just too lovely for anything! It is full of recipes telling how to utilize cold roast turkey with mushroom sauce and how to make truffle omelets and appetizers and— Why, John, what is the matter?
He staggered to the fireplace. "Give me that cookbook quick, Mary," he gasped hoarsely. "I must either burn it or rob a bank to pay for it!"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Mirror in Photography.
Many amateurs in possession of a fixed focus camera, says Photography, have doubtless found a difficulty in obtaining a photograph of some object in a room through being too near to it. This difficulty can often be overcome by placing a large mirror in front of the object and the camera in front of the mirror. Avoid the camera being reflected in the glass by standing a little on one side.

A REPUTATION

How It Was Made and Retained in Akron.

A good reputation is not easily earned, and it was only by hard, consistent work among our citizens that Doan's Kidney Pills won their way to the proud distinction attained in this locality. The public endorsement of scores of Akron residents has rendered invaluable service to the community. Read what this citizen says:
Mrs. F. M. Wolf, of 300 South Main st., says: "Before using Doan's Kidney Pills, I had a dull, grinding, aching over my kidneys, was lame in the small of my back, my kidneys were sluggish, and I suffered from a feeling of weariness the whole time. The treatment removed the trouble in my back and my kidneys acted normally. They are a splendid remedy."

Alexandra Easily Won the Jewel Contest At the Opening of Parliament.

Queen and Rival as Parliament Opened.

London, Jan. 23.—The gorgeousness of Her Majesty, Queen Alexandra, at the opening of Parliament last Thursday, and the magnificence of her jewels is even today the sole topic of those fortunate enough to catch a glimpse of the pomp, ceremony and magnificence that attended the affair. Her Majesty's display of jewels was both a hint and a challenge to the whole empire—a hint in the sense that she has set the fashion as to how and just what jewels are to be worn, and the brag and bluster which many of the Peersesses had made of the jewels they should wear. Her Majesty not only outshone them all, but startled them with the possibilities that the coronation fête might reveal.

The Duchess of Marlborough, who was expected to outshine the Queen, and whose Orloff pearls and beautiful gems were to be the talk of two continents, not only was eclipsed and outshone, but was actually made to look "cheap," so rich was the Queen in regal finery.

The Queen, tall, straight as a pine and superb of carriage, wore a great flowing robe of black velvet, over which was drawn a crimson velvet cloak and an ermine cape.

Against the velvet background the huge Kohinoor—the most valuable diamond in the world—blazed like Venus in a dark sky. About the huge stone was hung a necklace of diamonds six inches deep—each stone of great size and brilliancy. Upon the corsage diamond stars, brooches and pins were in profusion.

From her neck hung pearls most exquisite—a rope of them that reached almost to Her Majesty's feet.

Upon her head, was fastened the royal crown. It was set on a cushion fashioned of diamonds.

As Her Majesty faced the House from the throne there was a muffled "ah" that was instantly stifled. The "ah" summed up the chagrin and heartbreaks of the Peersesses.

Though none was there to compare with the Queen, the Duchess of Marlborough was undoubtedly the second lady there in point of grandeur.

She wore her Orloff pearls—baubles the value of which is a King's ransom. Also her famed tiara of diamonds, and a collar of sapphires that seemed to flash fire with each movement of her head. And there were brooches and clusters that shone like miniature suns.

La grippe coughs often continue for months and sometimes lead to fatal results after the patient is supposed to have passed the danger point. Foley's Honey and Tar affords positive protection and security from these coughs.

CLERK

To Work Under Mr. Garber.

The Plan of the Committee of Five.

Candidates For Secretaryship Were Disappointed.

(Special Correspondence.)

Columbus, O., Jan. 23.—The sub-committee of five appointed by the state Democratic committee to arrange for the establishing of permanent headquarters here, met at the office of Harvey T. Garber here yesterday afternoon. All the members of the sub-committee were present except Charles W. Baker, of Cincinnati, and he was represented by Michael Devanney, of Cincinnati.

The session of the committee was secret but after it was over it was announced that the selection of headquarters in the Hayden building had been ratified and that instead of electing a secretary it had been decided to have Chairman Garber employ a man to do the clerical work, at a salary of $800 per year and for him to look after the work himself, for the present, at least. There was a big bunch of candidates for the secretaryship, among

SPORTING NEWS.

The Success of a Daily Sporting Paper—Bright Newsy Features Throughout.

"There is certainly no publication that attracts readers more easily than the New York Sunday Telegraph, and this agreeable state of affairs is due to its clever knack of giving the reader just the kind of news he wants and presenting it in just the manner he likes to read it. The Sunday Telegraph's popularity is enhanced by special features not to be found in any other newspaper, and by a supplement printed in colors on fine book paper, the illustrations of which are equal to those of the best magazines."

The foregoing paragraph is unsolicited praise from the Cleveland Plain Dealer. It is succinct and decidedly to the point and conveys so much to the imagination that mere words could not paint a better portrayal of the publication. To convince yourself that the paragraph is not the result of an overheated imagination, send for a specimen copy and you will arrive at the conclusion that it was written by a sane man—after mature deliberation.

There is, also, a New York Morning Telegraph, which is a companion sheet to the Sunday Telegraph. It possesses all its good qualities and many things in addition. It is generally looked upon as a "feature" paper, in that certain lines of news are "starred" day after day and gives precedence over news that is to be found in penny publications. To illustrate, The Morning Telegraph is the leading sports and theatrical organ in America. Under the category of sports might be cited horse racing, both thoroughbred and trotting; pugilistic events, yachting and, in fact, every branch of sports with which Americans are familiar. It prints all the gossip of Broadway, of clubs and clubmen, horsemen, men about town and others of the smart set. This class of news is featured day after day and printed by the daily publications. To this policy may be traced the present vogue of The Morning Telegraph.

By addressing The Morning Telegraph, 116 Nassau st., New York, a specimen copy of both publications will be forwarded. It is an opportunity not to be lost.

A FATAL MEAL.

The Untimely Ending of a Crow Who Swallowed a Centipede.

"Saw a curious thing in California last winter," said the man who traveled about. "I had stopped for a moment to chat with a man who was plowing, when he called my attention to a large centipede that he had just plowed up."

"Come along with me a few feet," said he, "and let's see what those crows will do when they find it."

"There were several large carrion crows that had been following the farmer and picking up the insects that were turned up, and they were now a few feet away, waiting for the plow to start again."

"We went on a few feet, and the crows followed. One big, black fellow soon saw the centipede and swallowed him at once. Then, in the expressive slang of the day, there was something doing in the neighborhood of that crow. With a caw of despair he mounted into the air for perhaps a hundred feet, then fell head over head till he was a few feet from the ground. Then he managed to catch himself and flew upward again and away for the hills, cawing wildly. He had not gone more than 300 feet when he lost all control of himself and fell like a shot to the ground. We went over to where he had fallen and found him on his back with his feet in the air, stone dead."

"In a way I know how that crow felt when he awoke to the situation. I hadn't forgotten my first spoonful of tobacco sauce that a joking friend once talked me into swallowing."—Detroit Free Press.

Valley Forge.

My impression had been that Valley Forge was a wild glen high among the mountains, where winter frosts and snows held unrelaxing sway for many long, dark months every year. But really its situation is neither lofty nor remote, and the rigors of the cold are not nearly what they would be in our more northerly states. Comparatively little snow falls, and often there is not a week's sleighing the winter through. The valley is only twenty-three miles from Philadelphia, with which it has direct communication by a railroad that skirts along the Schuylkill river. Clifton Johnson in Woman's Home Companion.
